DETAILED ACTION

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Lance M. Kreisman on September 27, 2004. The application has been amended as follows:

✓
Please cancel claims 9-10.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-8 are allowed.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: claim 1 recites, inter alia, "a formatting circuitry coupled to the output of the timing circuitry to generate pulse waveforms; and pin electronics circuitry responsive to the formatting circuitry for interfacing the automatic test equipment to a device-under-test, wherein the pattern generation circuitry the timing circuitry the formatting circuitry and the pin electronics circuitry are formed on the same integrated circuit." In addition, the above limitation enable multi-voltage levels on the same integrated circuit without sacrificing performance and also provide the capability of minimizing the number and size of channel cards employed in automatic test equipment.

The art of record does not disclose the above limitations, nor would it be obvious to modify the art of record so as to include the above limitations. Although Rezvani et al. (U.S. 6,567,031) disclose a A/D multi-channel architecture and Hanafi et al. (U.S. 6,660,598) disclose Method of forming a fully-depleted SOI (silicon-on-insulator) MOSFET having a thinned channel region, they do not disclose the above-mentioned limitations.

Note: The allowable limitations above are not presented in the cancel claims.

Conclusion

3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
